Description:

The Sant'Andrea Village was designed by professionals with great experience in solving the needs of tourist residences.
The design of the Sant'Andrea Village was entrusted to the competence and sensitivity of the Buscaroli Studio in Milan, already a close collaborator of the Architect Luigi Vietti, in the implementation of important interventions (such as Porto Cervo and Cal del Faro in Sardinia, Gli Argonauti in Basilicata, Barialto in Puglia and the Golf Club of Asolo in Veneto) and of the Architect Marco Di Fusco of Pordenone.
